Volunteers Needed for Carroll County Oral History Project

Westminster, Maryland (December 22, 2008) – The Community Media Center is seeking volunteers to interview local residents for Carroll County Remembers, part of the Carroll County History Project. The CMC will train volunteers in interviewing techniques and camera skills and help trained volunteers coordinate with Carroll County residents who are interested in sharing their oral histories for the Carroll County Remembers archive.

A volunteer training workshop is scheduled for Saturday, January 17 at 10 am at the Community Media Center located at 1301 Washington Road in Westminster. The workshop is free and open to the public, but registration is required by Wednesday, January 14th. For information or to register please call 410-386-4415. Additional information about the Carroll County History Project can be found at CarrollHistory.org.

The Community Media Center of Carroll County provides public access programming and production training to local residents with a commitment to “make community matter.” For additional information, please visit our website at www.cmcmd.tv.
