CMC Looking for Memories from Local Residents

Westminster, Maryland (March 4, 2009) – The Community Media Center of Carroll County is seeking local residents who are interested in sharing their memories for the Carroll County History Project. This multi-year, multi-part initiative includes a comprehensive history of the county as well as a permanent archive of personal memories from people who grew up or lived here. Interviews are videotaped and stored in a permanent archive for future generations to use and enjoy. They will be made available online at www.CarrollHistory.org. For more information, please visit the website or call 410-386-4415.

The Community Media Center of Carroll County provides public access programming and production training to local residents and nonprofits with a commitment to “make community matter.” For additional information, please visit www.cmcmd.tv.
